Summer Chic!

Summer is in full bloom at TheElegantBead.com gallery and that means many relaxed styles to accessorize! Whether your travel plans include a special reunion, sightseeing, romantic cruise, or spending time at the beach remember to take each style to suit and flatter you!

The 2003 trends are pink and other sorbet colors ~ polka dots ~ floral prints ~ flowing skirts ~ tailored suits ~ feminine shoes ~ fun handbags ~ Asian influences ~ great dresses ~ cargo pants ~ chunky organic jewelry from The Elegant Bead!

For a new look, wear together #237b and #238b, then add #272e for a complete look! #194b is a awesome summer blue. It looks great with crisp whites and floral prints. #222b is a wonderful compliment to Asian inspired motifs or polka dots.

On all your breezy summer nights that call for flowing skirts, pair them with #522e or #e28k! Great for the teens and their summer prints, is #483e.

Savvy Style

Q. What should I wear to a morning wedding? What nuptial attire is not appropriate in the A.M.?

A. A light colored feminine suit (blush, champagne or the new sorbets) is usually the best option. Compliment the suit with slingback shoes, bare legs, and colorful jewelry. One should avoid Black (too funereal), white, (it competes with the bride), and beading (for evening only)

Q. I've been invited to a Bar / Bat Mitzvah. How conservative should I dress?

A. Bar Mitzvahs (for boys) and Bat Mitzvahs (for girls) are religious ceremonies that for the service, cover your arms with a jacket or a matching cardigan in summer weight. A formal party is often given in evening, sometimes as elaborate as weddings. Add a beaded bag, stunning jewelry, heels and viola!
